

Governor McKinley

Is On Top in Minneapolis.
A Great Reception and Speech on Democratic Misrule.

Railroad Rate War Settled and Old Rates Will Soon Be Resumed.

Breckinridge-Pollard Mess
Still Stinking.

Cleveland's Got the Gout. No Action on the Seigniorage Bill.

NEW YORK, March 29.—Silver, 59 1/8; SALT LAKE, March 29.—The local passenger officials received notice yesterday of the adjustment of the rate trouble at Chicago, which means a speedy restoration of rates to the ante bellum basis. The east bound rates will be restored on April 8th, as follows:
To Chicago, from $32.50 to $37.50; to St.
Louis, from $27.50 to $32.50; to Missouri river points, from $20 to $25. The round trip rates of $55.50 to Chicago, and $36.50 to the river, will be withdrawn and no round trips given.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., March 28.—Today was a great day for Governor McKinley.
He and his party reached this City from Chicago and were met by 8000 Republicans, who lavished every attention upon the members of the party. McKinley in a speech in the evening, presided over by the Governor, reviewed the one year of Democratic rule, pointed out its effects upon the country and referred in detail to the Wilson bill. "The platform and candidates of the great convention assembled in 1892, admirable as they were, were rejected by the people at the election following but the people had no sooner spoken than they realized their great mistake, a mistake which they now feel most sensibly, and regret more deeply. The principles enunciated at that convention were true then, they are true now, they are as dear to Republicans now, they are better understood and more ardently supported by the great body of the people in the year 1894 than they were in 1892.
While the Republican party failed to carry the election, the cause for which it contends did not fail. It survived the awful disaster and shines more glorious than ever." In closing, the Governor said a general election was never so much needed. The election together common idea that there is practically no difference between the parties, and that the country will prosper equally, which ever may be in power, has been completely exploded by one year's trial of the Democratic party.

SALT LAKE, March 28.—A dispatch received in this city yesterday from Los Angeles, California, says that Commissioner Lett, of the Utah Commission, had died while on his way to California. Lett has been very sick for several months past and he left for the west for the purpose of recovering his health. Deceased was a prominent man here and was at one time Democratic nominee for Mayor of this city.

A dispatch from Washington states that President Cleveland has the gout, and has been crippled ever since his return from the North Carolina swamps.

The papers continue to publish the distasteful details of the Breckinridge-Pollard trial now going on at Washington. A summary of the testimony on both sides shows that Breckinridge is a scoundrel.
His defense has been very weak and has surprised his most ardent supporters.

A dispatch from Chicago states that at an early meeting of the Union League Club Directors, the name of Colonel Breckinridge will be scratched from the list of honorary members. The Union Club has been very conservative in electing honorary members and has conferred that distinction upon only three men: Ex-President Benjamin Harrison, Chauncey M. Depew and the Kentucky Congressman.

LEXINGTON, Ky., March 28.—The people of this district are beginning to realize that Colonel Breckinridge's chances for re-nomination and election are growing less every day the trial goes on. The people are horror stricken at the double life Colonel Breckinridge has been leading and there is talk of a public indignation meeting to request his resignation.

The depositions secured here by the defense were extensively published, being given out by the attorney of Colonel Breckinridge. They were of a very dirty character and came from disreputable persons. Owens and Settle, two aspirants for Breckinridge's seat in Congress are making haste to get as far advanced in their race as possible before Breckinridge returns.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—Delegates Rawlins is entirely satisfied with the condition of the removal bill in the House. He says to-day that the sub-committee of the House Committee on Indian Affairs, have agreed on the proposition that the Utes ought to be removed from Colorado, and differ on other details. He says that the committee is now considering the bill to open the Uncompa-gne Reservation. The Interior Department has reported favorably on the bill. Mr.
Rawlins passed his bill yesterday donating a portion of the Fort Douglas Military Reservation to the University. He expects its prompt passage by the Senate.

TELEGRAPHIC NOTES.

DENVER, Colo., March 25.—Judge Platt Rogers, counsel for Governor Waite in the Fire and Police Board controversy, announced positively to-night that the Governor had given his promise not to call out the militia again for the purpose of unseating the removed Commissioners, Orr and Martin.

The Governor refuses to be interviewed.

BUFFALO, Wyo., March 25.—Last week's blizzard continuing seventy hours, has never been approached in severity by any other storm in this locality. Snow is drifted from ten to twenty feet in every direction. The mail coach took five days making one trip from Clearmont, thirty miles. The loss of stock is terrible. The loss of range stock is likely to be one-half, which will leave scarcely any stock in the country this spring.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—President Cleveland's private office at the Executive Mansion was the center of unusual activity to-day, as the leading silver men of Congress appeared before him to urge that he sign the Bland bill. At one time there were fifteen of them ranged about the President and earnestly pleading with him. They had come singly and in State delegations.

When the main body of Congressmen had retired others arrived, and then a stream of silver pleas continued throughout the public hours of the President. The south came strongly to the front in the letters and telegrams piled upon Mr. Thurber's desk, nearly all praying for a veto.

CHICAGO, March 24.—Pendergast may walk from the jail a free man, according to the opinion of ex-Judge Egbert M. Jamieson of the Superior Court. One of the most famous lawyers in Illinois. He declares the convicted assassin of Mayor Harrison is now held without the proceeds of law, and simple habeas corpus proceedings could result in no other action than the deliverance of the body of the prisoner to his friends.

LONDON, March 24.—The body of Mrs.
Fielding was found to-day in the river Cherwell, near Oxford. There is little doubt she committed suicide.

CHICAGO, March 23.—Thomas alias "Buff" Higgins, was hanged in jail here at noon for the murder of Peter McCuey, an old city employee, last September. Higgins and two pals planned to burglarize Mc-Cuey's house. Higgins entered while the others kept watch outside. McCuey heard the noise, sat up in bed and was shot by Higgins without a word.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—A man went into the branch bank of the San Francisco Savings Union, which is situated at the corner of Market and Polk streets, about 9:30 o'clock. He presented a written demand for money to cashier William A.
Herick. The demand was refused, whereupon the desperado murdered the cashier and fled, but was captured.

Herick was 35 years of age and resided in Oakland.

DETROIT, Mich., March 22.—W. J. H.
Traynor, supreme President of the American Protective Association and publisher of the Patriotic American, today issued an official address to the order. He states that his travels in the West had convinced him that the A. P. A. is a mighty force which no power on earth is potent enough to restrain although the press a large proportion of the Protestant clergy to their shame or ignorance be it said—corrupt politicians and the priesthood have joined issue to suppress it.

CHICAGO, March 22.—The brickmakers employed by Weil Bros. Weickler & Prussing and the Abbot Brick Company, who reside at Blue Island, joined the strikers today. The men in all the brickyards around Dalton, Blue Island and Berne are now out, with the exception of those employed by D. V. Parington, and it is expected that these will go out to-morrow. The strikers now number 1200.

DENVER, March 22.—One of the most destructive of flagrant fires ever seen in this city broke out at 6:15 p. m. in the recently finished six story Champa building, on Champa street, between fifteenth and sixteenth streets and threatened for a time to sweep the entire block. The fire department worked with desperate energy, and in spite of insufficient water pressure, com-quered the flames. About a quarter of the square was destroyed, at a total loss of $175,000. The St. James hotel, one of the largest in the city, on Curtis street, back of the Champa building, caught fire and the rear part was destroyed. The guest were gotten out without a panic.

At the last gathering of the ladies' club of Tucson, an address was delivered by the president upon man. The accompanying paragraphs were a part of it, says the Prospector:
They say man was created first. Well, suppose he was; were not first experiments always failures?
The only unselfish thing about him was a rib, and that went to make something better.

And then they throw into our faces about taking an apple. I'll bet $5 that Adam boosted her up the tree and then only gave her the core.

And what did he do when he was found out? True to his masculine instincts he sneaked behind Eve's Grecian head and said "it wasn't me; 'twas her," and woman has to father everything mean and mother it too.

Chauncey Depew admits that there are 10, 000,000 people out of employment in the United States. How long can they exist on scenery and fresh air? The time is fast approaching when a cyclone of great magnitude will sweep the country.

Vanderbilt can write a few words on a sheet of paper and make it worth $5,000, 000. That's capital. The editor of this paper can write a check for $50,000,000, but it wouldn't be worth a dime. That's hell.
Ex.

It is said the Columbian stamp will be retired about the 14th of April. What an expenditure of saliva it will save.

According to the prediction of Foster and Prof. Falb, the large comet of 1895 will visit us in 1899 and probably collide with the earth.

PANACA PICKINGS.

Last Sunday the young men and young ladies held their monthly conjunct meeting and a very enjoyable time was had and the following program was carried out: Lecture, by Levi Syphus; recitation, Sarah Wedge; song, George Riding; lecture, Clara Syphus; recitation, Wm. Lee; reading of the M. L.
A. budget by the editor, Mary Wardell.
There were several visitors from Ballinville and Pioche.

Josh Wadsworth was over from Helene during the week. Josh is running a feed corral at the junction of the Helene and April Fool roads.
Most of the teams that have been engaged in hauling ore to the Condon mill and Ballinville have gone home.
Ballinville now boasts of a feed corral and no doubt if the mill operates successfully there will soon be drinking houses or saloons in plenty.
Spring work has begun and some have already planted garden stuff and grain.
Eggs are quite plentiful just at present here.

J. R. Megarrigle's Death.

Died at the Las Vegas ranch on March 16, 1894, of a grippie, J. R. Megarrigle. He was a native of Ireland and a member of the Masonic Order. For the past twenty years he was closely connected with the interests of Lincoln county, having taught school principally in that section. During his illness he received every attention at the hands of Mrs. Stewart who watched over him throughout his sickness with a motherly care.

For many years, when public interest was greater than now, J. Ross Megarrigle, as he was familiarly known, represented southern Lincoln in all political matters and did it well. He was a man of considerable ability and possessed of many good qualities and would have experienced little difficulty in making a place for himself in almost any quarter of the country, but a love of western life, coupled with a weakness for the flowing bowl, which however harmed only himself, made him cling to his Southern Lincoln home, where his ability and general good qualities were generally recognized. He was about 65 years of age.

From Vanderbilt.

W. B. Stanley was in town Monday on his way to Geyser. He is just up from Vanderbilt, which place he left on the 12th, inst., immediately after a trial run of the Campbell mill. The run was more than satisfactory in its output, and shows that immense profit will follow. The ore worked was from the Boomerang mine. The chief difficulty to contend with at present is a scarcity of water. Mr. Stanley reports the camp to have been quite lively all winter.
His business here now is to look after the Rose and Lake Valley ranches. A shipment of about 150 head of beef cattle will be made to Salt Lake from the Lake Valley ranch in about two weeks. The cattle have been fed all winter and are in prime condition.

Las Vegas.

Under date of the 17th, inst., Mrs. H. J.
Stewart writes from the Las Vegas ranch in the southern part of this county, that M. B.
Lawrence, a mining man from Ivanpah, had made a discovery of some rich gold ledges, about five miles from the Lucky Datselman mine, and that he was working a force of five men on them, also that Mr. Basl was on his way from San Bernardino with a load of supplies intended for a resumption of work on his claims thereabouts.

This shows that prospecting in that vicinity has not yet been abandoned and valuable discoveries may be looked for at almost any time.

A Little Daughter

Of a Church of England minister cured of a distressing rash, by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Mr. RICHARD BIRKS, the well-known Druggist, 207 McGill st., Montreal, P. Q., says: I have sold Ayer's Family Medicine for 40 years, and have heard nothing but good said of them. I know of many Wonderful Cures

performed by Ayer's Sarsaparilla, one in particular being that of a little daughter of a Church of England minister. The child was literally covered from head to foot with a red and exceedingly troublesome rash, from which she had suffered for two or three years, in spite of the best medical treatment available. Her father was in great distress about the case, and, at my recommendation, at last began to administer Ayer's Sarsaparilla, two bottles of which effected a complete cure, much to her relief and her father's delight. I am sure, were he here to-day, he would testify in the strongest terms as to the merits of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla
